

PAID TEACHING ARTIST OPPORTUNITY!

STC's School of the Arts is seeking passionate part-time and substitute Teaching Artists in the following areas: acting, dance, voice, directing, improvisation, stage makeup, technical theatre, costume design and more. We are also looking for counselors for our camp programs. We have programs for students in 1st grade through high school, and are looking for teachers for all age levels.

Responsibilities:

- Work with your Program Manager to implement classes and curriculum as outlined for your position.
- Collaborate and communicate with Program Manager and other Teaching Artists as needed for group projects and showcases that can work across fields/classes
- Be committed to creating a safe environment for students in which they feel free to explore and take risks
- Be a positive role model for students and have a positive behavior management plan
- Care deeply about their students' artistic growth and well-being
- Reinforce foundational skills in their field and introduce more advanced technique as is appropriate
- Be committed to inspiring our students to experience the joy of theatre

Qualifications:

- Have training and experience working in the field in which they wish to teach
- Have training and/or experience working with students in 1st grade through high school
- Be able to teach to a range of skill levels within a class
- Be reliable with regards to communication, planning, punctuality, completing necessary syllabi and class reports, and in all other ways
- Have reliable transportation
- Have experience working with students and families of diverse backgrounds
- Ability to submit accurate timesheets bi-weekly according to payroll standards
- Be willing to get fingerprinted specifically for STC upon hire

Hours: Teaching Artists interested in Summer positions should have availability weekdays from 9am-5pm June through August. Teaching Artists interested in teaching for our Conservatory Programs should have availability on Saturday mornings (9am-1p) and/or weekday evenings 4:30-7:00pm

For more information or to apply, please email education@sactheatre.org with a cover letter, resume, and three references.

